Resolutions of Jonathan Edwards

Being sensible, that I am unable to do anything without God's help, I do humbly entreat Him, by His grace, to enable me to keep these Resolutions, so far as they are agreeable to His will, for Christ's sake. [I will] remember to read over these Resolutions once a week.

Resolved, That I will do whatsoever I think to be most to the glory of God, and my own good, profit, and pleasure, in the whole of my duration; without any consideration of the time, whether now, or never so many myriads of ages hence. Resolved, to do whatever I think to be my duty, and most for the good and advantage of mankind in general.

Resolved, Never to lose one moment of time, but to improve it in the most profitable way I possibly can.

Resolved, to live with all my might, while I do live.

Resolved, Never to do anything, which I should be afraid to do if it were the last hour of my life.

Resolved, Never to do anything out of revenge.

Resolved, Never to speak evil of any one, so that it shall tend to his dishonor, more or less, upon no account except for some real good.

Resolved, To study the Scriptures so steadily, constantly, and frequently, as that I may find, and plainly perceive, myself to grow in the knowledge of the same.

Resolved, Never to count that a prayer, nor to let that pass as a prayer, nor that as a petition of a prayer, which is so made, that I cannot hope that God will answer it; nor that as a confession which I cannot hope God will accept.

Resolved, To ask myself, at the end of every day, week, month, and year, wherein I could possibly, in any respect, have done better.

Resolved, Never to give over, nor in the least to slacken, my fight with my corruptions, however unsuccessful I may be.

Resolved, After afflictions, to inquire, what I am the better for them; what good I have got by them, and what I might have got by them.

Resolved, Always to do that which I shall wish I had done when I see others do it. Let there be something of benevolence in all that I speak.

Love,
Pastor Ed

This year has been such a blessing here for us at Crossfire. The church especially has been helpful in its support of our young people, and helping to impact their lives for Christ. Going with the tradition of the last few years, we went down to the Mexico orphanage, and were blessed beyond belief. It is almost as if we go down there to be blessed.

We want to thank you for all your help and prayers this last year, and we are especially looking forward to 2008 being an incredible year. Please keep us in your prayers. We're believing for great things this year!

With great bands and lots of promotional work December was an amazing month for the Attic. More flyers were dropped, more phone calls were made, and more people came.

This show was the perfect show to end the year with. With such a great boost of confidence, we are now looking forward to 2008.

Each failure and success of 2007, will only help 2008 to be even stronger. With many shows to come please pray with us that this new year would bring even more kids inside our doors.

Men's Ministries

We will meet in the fellowship hall for breakfast and a great time of fellowship January 19, 2008 at 8:00AM.

Invite a friend, come and be blessed as we make our plans for the New Year. See you January 19th!

Gentlemen Start Your Engines

The Royal Rangers will be spending January preparing their cars for the big race in February. They will be starting with a block of pine and creating amazing racing machines.

The race is tentatively scheduled for Saturday February 2. For all you talented craftsmen we could use some help from someone that owns a table saw. If you can help us with this project, please contact Pastor Brian or Ron Pryer.

Meet Jackie Zelt

Jackie serves the Lord here at Orange Hills in many different capacities. She loves to sing in the worship team or choir, works in Children's Ministries as a nursery care giver and helps in the Women's Ministries department. We are thankful for Jackie and appreciate her service to the Lord, here at Orange Hills. God bless you as you seek to serve Him.

Children's Ministry

KidZone had a wonderful time in December. On the 23rd we all celebrated the birth of our Lord with a spectacular party.

All the kids dressed in their Christmas clothes and ate a lot of yummy tasty treats made specially for the occasion. Every year it is our tradition to give each kid at church on Christmas Sunday a toy from the church. So this year every kid left with something to enjoy.

We will also be ending our newest curriculum Good vs. Evil this month. The kids have really enjoyed this curriculum.

In January we will be starting a new curriculum very similar to Good vs. Evil. The kids are sure to enjoy every minute of it!

On to Philipians

Orange Hills Bible Quiz teams are gearing up for the January Quiz. The meet will be held at nearby Rose Drive Friends Church and it will be a great opportunity to see our teams in action.

The quiz will be on Saturday, January 12th from 9:00 am until around 2:00 pm. Contact Ron Pryer for more information.

The teens having already quizzed over Galatians and Ephesians will be quizzing over the book of Philipians in January and the books of Colossians and Philemon in February.

Several of our team members have completed memorizing all of the material and are now working on perfecting their understanding of the scriptures.

Our JBQ teams will be in action also and will be quizzing over the first ¾ of the bible fact pack. These dynamos have mastered an amazing amount of material and are great fun to watch in action.

Meet the Ron Pryer Family

Ron and Donna Pryer are two of the busiest people at Orange Hills. Donna and Ron together are our very successful "Bible Quiz" leaders. They have coached the Orange Hills teams to the national finals very consistently not to mention the Bible knowledge these young people acquire.

Donna is very active in Women's Ministries, serving on the leadership committee as well as ministering in the KidZone Ministries group. Ron faithfully works with Royal Rangers. Then there are the children, they too are very busy helping, singing, playing musical instruments, and just doing whatever they can to bring honor and glory to the Lord.

We are very thankful for this entire family and grateful for their service here at Orange Hills. God bless you richly as you continue to serve Him.

MISSIONETTES

What a fun time we had at our Missionette Christmas Party. We were able to share fun, food and the Christmas Story with the girls.

With the beginning of the New Year our Stars will be busy with a variety of projects to prepare for Missionette camp this summer. We will be creating a cheer, banner, door sign and name badges.

Our Prim and Daisy classes will continue with various badges and crafts.

We have an AWESOME group of girls (about 20) and no Coordinator could ask for better Sponsors.

Wishing each and everyone a Blessed New Year!
