Twenty Dollars

A well known speaker started off his seminar by holding up a $20.00 bill. In the room of 200, he asked, "Who would like this $20.00 bill?"

Hands started going up. He said, "I am going to give this $20.00 bill to one of you, but first let me do this."

He proceeded to crumple the 20 dollar note up. He then asked, "Who still wants it?" Still the hands were up in the air.

"Well," he replied, "what if I do this?" He dropped it on the ground and started to grind it into the floor with his shoe. He picked it up, now crumpled and dirty. "Now, who still wants it?"

Still the hands went into the air.

"My friends, you have all learned a very valuable lesson. No matter what I did to the money, you still wanted it because it did not decrease in value. It was still worth $20.

Many times in our lives, we are dropped, crumpled and ground into the dirt by the decisions we make and the circumstances that come our way. We feel as though we are worthless; but no matter what happened or what will happen, you will never lose your value."

Dirty or clean, crumpled or finely creased, you are still priceless to those who love you. The worth of our lives comes, not in what we do or who we know, but by...WHO WE ARE.

You are special - don't ever forget it.

Love,

Pastor Ed

September was a great month for The Attic. We had an amazing 5-band lineup that was truly outstanding, and put on a very good show.

Attendance was at our highest ever. We planned for 100 but by the end of the night we ran out of bracelets and began to stamp the hands of kids as they came in the door. We are really looking forward to our upcoming shows this fall. God is truly blessing us and we thank you for all of your prayers.

MISSIONETTES

What a great September we had. The following is an essay written by Heather Lopez regarding our "Welcome Back" sleepover:

"The Missionette sleepover was on the 14th of September. I was really excited because I had never been to a Missionette sleepover in my whole life! At the last sleepover I was sick and I didn't get to go. Now I'd been waiting for a month for this sleepover. I kept thinking, "I want the sleepover to be tonight!" It was hard to wait for the sleepover. At the sleepover we were going to watch a movie, play with balls and balloons and do a craft. We were going to eat pizza and s'mores. When I got there it was even more fun than I thought it would be!"

Congratulations to all of the children who received their certificates at the awards ceremony on September 16th. Special congratulations to our Honor Rainbows, Shaylee and Cassarah and Honor Prims, Aubree, Grace, Faith and Rebecca.

October will find all our clubs back in full swing and earning various badges.

I'm so grateful for all the Lord has done and especially thankful for our Sponsors. We have 2 new Sponsors. Wendy Hammitt now teaches our Stars and Cynthia Wright helps with the Prims. Deanne Walkwitz continues as our Prims Sponsor. Rhonda Lopez has taken over as the Daisy Sponsor.

Thank you to all the Sponsors for your dedication and love for the Missionettes program. Enjoy the fall season!

Children's Ministry

Last month Children's Ministries got off to a great start. Missionettes started up in the first week of September.

All of the girls and leaders are excited for the new season. With a sleepover and a few mid-week studies under their belt, the Missionettes have a very busy year to look forward to.

Although our Royal Rangers did not have much of an off season, they too are back in their normal season. The boys and commanders are excited about this new year. They are planning on having many campouts and other fun filled activities this year.

Also, KidZone started a new curriculum called Operation Enduring Courage. This fun and wild curriculum takes us through the book of Daniel, where we learn about Daniel's life and how we need to stand up and be strong for what we believe in.

We will be finishing this series in October. Also in October is our Blast to the Past Harvest celebration and we invite anyone and everyone who wants to come and be a part in that.

Senior Pastor Ed Rutherford

I want to thank all the ladies who helped make our September kick-off meeting a success. We had a good time getting to know each other, enjoying good food and even gleaned a few pointers on improving relationships from our guest speaker.

Join us on Saturday, October 6th for our 3rd Annual Gingham Breakfast. Men's Ministries will once again treat us with an unforgettable country breakfast of biscuits and gravy, bacon & sausage, and eggs. Come enjoy a time of music, an inspirational word and a good breakfast.

Do you like to bake desserts? If so, Women's Ministries wants you. This year we plan to host a dessert table for Blast to the Past Sunday, October 29. We will be taking volunteers to help with this fund-raiser at our Gingham Breakfast.

Proceeds will go to help the Women's Ministries fund. Tickets for Season Spectacular are now available. Two tables have been reserved and tickets do go quickly. Cost is $37 per person. Deadline to purchase tickets is Sunday, October 28th.
